

Sharing Cultures with Inuit Youth through a Collaborative Project

Carleton
University

Daphne Wornovitzky, Neuroscience Department,
Carleton University

BACKGROUND

Igloolik has a population that is 96% Inuit

Inuit have been subject to Historical Trauma, but have shown resilience through embracing their cultural identity

PROJECT GOALS

- 1 Initiate intercultural sharing between Igloolik and Carleton students

This made the Igloolik students more comfortable and helped build relationships since the Carleton students had also faced hardships

Carleton students shared images and stories from their diverse cultural backgrounds

- 2 Support youth with their Rising Youth Project (RYP) applications

#RISINGYOUTH
community service grants

- 3 Create a video-sharing library

